The School is seeking to appoint an outstanding Primary Visual Arts Teacher to commence at the beginning of Term 2, 2016. This full time maternity leave position is available at the Preparatory School of the School at Strathfield with the possibility of part time employment in 2017. Primary Education Pre-Kindergarten-Year 6 at Trinity follows the Primary Years Programme (PYP), developed by the International Baccalaureate Organisation. It is an inquiry-based pedagogy that frames the learning environment. Knowledge of the PYP would be advantageous to applicants wishing to be considered for this position. The successful applicant will be required to participate fully in the School’s sporting and co-curricular programme.

General Description

Trinity Grammar School is the largest Anglican Boys’ day and boarding School in NSW with an enviable reputation and tradition for serving the educational needs of boys and young men over a number of generations. The School has campuses located in Strathfield (Preparatory School), Summer Hill (Senior School, Middle School and Junior School) and Field Studies Centre at Woollamia. Since its founding in 1913, Trinity has forged a reputation for outstanding academic results, a caring pastoral programme and an emphasis on both traditional and community sports. Trinity has an enrolment of some 2000 boys.

The School is a member of the Combined Associated Schools of New South Wales and joins in the CAS Sports competition, while at the Primary level the School is a member of the Independent Primary Schools Heads of Australia and participates in the IPSHA Sports and Cultural activities.

All members of staff are appointed by the Head Master and they are responsible to him for the overall performance of their duties. The Head Master delegates his authority to senior staff members for the effective management of the School.

Mission Statement

The mission of Trinity Grammar School is to provide a thoroughly Christian education for its boys, imparting knowledge and understanding of the world we live in, and recognising the importance of spiritual qualities in every sphere of learning and living. The School actively encourages its students to grow in wisdom and stature and in favour with God and man.
