ACADEMIC POSITION SENIOR CHEMISTRY TEACHER TO COMMENCE TERM IV 2017

Trinity Grammar School is one of Sydney's leading boys' schools with an outstanding academic heritage and enviable facilities. Alongside the Higher School Certificate, the School prepares candidates for the International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma.

Applications are invited from suitably experienced and qualified Chemistry teachers to commence at the beginning of Term 4 2017. The position will involve teaching Senior Chemistry, as well as Junior Science. Applicants should be committed to excellence in teaching, and possess a strong desire for professional growth and development. A demonstrated ability in working constructively and collegially as a member of a team environment is also essential. A strong academic background in Chemistry is expected, along with a thorough understanding of the new Stage 6 Syllabus and, preferably, experience teaching IB Chemistry. Applicants should have a personal identification with the Christian ethos of the School. The successful applicant will be required to contribute to the School's comprehensive co-curricular programme.

General Information

Trinity Grammar School is the largest Anglican Boys' day and boarding School in NSW with an enviable reputation and tradition for serving the educational needs of boys and young men over a number of generations. The School has campuses located in Strathfield (Preparatory School), Summer Hill (Senior, Middle and Junior School) and our Field Studies Centre at Woollamia. Since its founding in 1913, Trinity has forged a reputation for outstanding academic results, a caring pastoral programme and an emphasis on both traditional and community sports. Trinity has an enrolment of some 2,100 boys.

The School is a member of the Combined Associated Schools of New South Wales and joins in the CAS Sports competition. Staff members are therefore expected to participate in the co-curricular programme of the School.

All members of staff are appointed by the Head Master and they are responsible to him for the overall performance of their duties. The Head Master delegates his authority to senior staff members for the effective management of the School.

Mission Statement

The mission of Trinity Grammar School is to provide a thoroughly Christian education for its boys, imparting knowledge and understanding of the world we live in, and recognising the importance of spiritual qualities in every sphere of learning and living. The School actively encourages its students to grow in wisdom and stature and in favour with God and man.

Specific Duties/Responsibilities

1. To perform conscientiously and competently the duties, both teaching and non-teaching, that he/she is assigned by the Head Master from time to time.
2. To maintain such records as may be required by the School.
3. To co-operate with the senior staff in the organisation and management of the School and help promote a team spirit among the staff.
4. To be actively involved in supporting the School co-curricular and sporting activities.
5. To be positive in support of the School's traditions and Christian ethos.
6. To help foster good relations between parents, the community and the School and encourage parents to take an interest in the schooling of their sons and to participate in the life of Trinity Grammar School.
