ACADEMIC POSITION CASUAL TEACHERS PRIMARY & SECONDARY

Trinity Grammar School is the largest Anglican Boys' day and boarding School in NSW with an enviable reputation and tradition over a number of generations for serving the educational needs of boys and young men. The School has campuses located in Strathfield (Preparatory School), Summer Hill (Senior, Middle and Junior School) and Field Studies Centre at Woollamia. Since its founding in 1913, Trinity has forged a reputation for outstanding academic results, a caring pastoral programme and an emphasis on both traditional and community sports. Trinity has an enrolment of some 2100 boys.

Casual teaching positions (Primary and Secondary)

Trinity is moving in a new direction. The School will now be accepting applications for casual teaching positions twice a year.

Opportunities exist for specialist teachers to work as part of our teaching teams across our School to cover short-term absences and longer leave blocks.

While we are recruiting in all subject areas, we are keen to hear from specialist teachers in the following disciplines: TAS, Maths and Economics

New graduates are encouraged to apply.

Trinity is committed to the support and professional development of all teachers, including our valued casuals, by offering:

- A strong Christian foundation
- Subject specialised teaching
- Support for NESA accreditation hours provided through in-house professional learning
- Opportunities to be part of a Professional Learning Team
- Access to state of the art resources and facilities
- Opportunities to be involved in Sport and Cocurricular Activities outside of the classroom
- Opportunities to teach both the NSW (HSC) and the International Baccalaureate program.

We are looking for...

- Enthusiastic life-long learners
- Innovative practioners
- A willingness to be involved in the broad life of the School
- A connection with the Christian Mission of the School

Successful candidates will have....

- Formal teaching qualifications in one or more disciplines/subject areas
- Current registration with NESAs
- A valid Working with Children Check number
