GRAMMAR SCHOOL

ACADEMIC POSITION TEACHING INTERNSHIP PRIMARY

Trinity Grammar School is the largest Anglican Boys' day and boarding School in NSW with an enviable reputation and tradition over a number of generations for serving the educational needs of boys and young men. The School has campuses located in Strathfield (Preparatory School), Summer Hill (Senior, Middle and Junior School) and Field Studies Centre at Woollamia. Since its founding in 1913, Trinity has forged a reputation for outstanding academic results, a caring pastoral programme and an emphasis on both traditional and community sports. Trinity has an enrolment of some 2100 boys.

Teaching Internship (Primary) 29th April – 5th December 2019

A unique opportunity has arisen to work as part of our teaching team across our two primary schools and be actively involved in our wider sport and cocurricular program.

This position offers the ideal opportunity to broaden your experience through involvement in classroom teaching at all stages, small group lessons for literacy, numeracy and STEAM, as well as gaining hands-on experience in both the NSW curriculum and the International Baccalaureate – Primary Years Program (IB-PYP).

While we would be delighted to hear from all suitable applicants, we are especially keen to hear from new and recent graduates.

Trinity is committed to the support and professional development of all teachers, by offering:

1. A strong Christian foundation
2. Support for NESA accreditation hours provided through in-house professional learning
3. Opportunities to be part of a Professional Learning Team
4. Access to state of the art resources and facilities
5. Involvement in Sport and Cocurricular activities outside of the classroom
6. Opportunities to teach both the NSW and the International Baccalaureate – Primary Years Program.

We are looking for...

1. Enthusiastic life-long learners
2. Innovative practitioners
3. A willingness to be involved in the broad life of the School
4. A connection with the Christian Mission of the School

Successful candidates will have....

1. Formal teaching qualifications in one or more disciplines/ subject areas
2. Current registration with NESAs
3. A valid Working with Children Check number
4. Current drivers licence and own vehicle – as travel between Strathfield and Summer Hill campuses will be required.

Applications close Wednesday 10th April 2019.
