ACU

New Bachelor of Commerce

The Bachelor of Commerce offered by the Peter Faber Business school has been revised and is now ready to provide students with creative, critical thinking and problem solving skills that will help launch their careers.

The program now contains foundational business units that allows a student to identify their areas of interest before they choose their majors to specialise in. Students are now able to begin their major units within the second semester of their first year of study. Within this course, students will develop a global outlook and intercultural competencies that can be applied to real-life situations. The course is also now Microsoft certified, which provides our commerce graduates a competitive edge in the job market.

Additionally, the course will open the door to networking opportunities with ACU graduates, allowing students to connect with them for industry and career support. Learn more about how the course was redesigned>>

New Bachelor of Arts (Western Civilisation)/Bachelor of Laws

In 2022 we are launching the Bachelor of Arts \(Western Civilisation\)/Bachelor of Laws. This rigorous and stimulating intellectual program give students the option of combining a professional legal education with a liberal arts degree in Western civilisation.

The degree provides opportunities for students to explore the past, present and future of Western intellectual life and to expand knowledge and skills drawn from the humanities, arts and social sciences. Collectively with the Bachelor of Arts \(Western Civilisation\), which was launched this year, our Western civilisation courses provide eligible students with scholarships valued from $90,000 to $150,000, generously funded by the Ramsay Centre.

New Archaeology major for the Bachelor of Arts

In 2022 we will be introducing a new major to our Bachelor of Arts offering. Dedicated to the archaeology, history and languages of Ancient Israel, the Archaeology major will be delivered online and available for on-campus study.

Students will have the opportunity to participate in an archaeological dig in Israel as part of their studies.
